I am in receipt of your letter and application for employment and regret to say that I do not have a position in my immediate component to offer you, and therefore am sending your application to the Personnel Office for consideration in other parts of the Organization.

I understand that inquiry has been made with respect to arranging a contract for you as a German instructor and have been assured that you will be invited for an interview at such time as an opening will exist.

With my best regards.

Sincerely,
